General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR)

On the 25th May 2018 new regulations came into place regarding data protection and data retention known as GDPR, so as part of this process we are contacting our customers. Please read the below and carefully tick the relevant boxes. Once completed return this letter to us by post or email.

Data Protection

At M&R Hydraulics Ltd we take data protection very seriously. Your data is stored on a password protected email and invoicing systems and only available to a small number of staff and our certified Accountant in order to carry out their roles. The types of information we hold include name, job title, company name, address, email address and telephone numbers.

We will never pass your data on or sell it to third parties without your permission.

I agree for my data to be held and processed in this manner

(please tick to confirm)

Data Retention

We would like to contact you to update you on products and services that we offer. This would be information that we believe would be of interest to you and an occasional basis taking care to avoid any spam-like behaviour.

(please tick to confirm)

I agree to be sent information on products and services
